Aztec Secrets – Game Rules

Chance to Win:

This game has an RTP of 95.50%

To help you understand the chance you have of winning money while playing this game we used a valie called the return to player (RTP). This means that this game will over a statistically large number of spins pay out on average 95.50 for each 100.00 staked. This is not a promise that it will pay out this amount every time, some people will win more than this amount some people will win less at this game determines its payout each spin using a UK certified random number generator (RNG), so over a large enough number of spins payouts will tend towards this level of return.

Fairness:

The outcome of each spin in this game is randomly determined in accordance with the advertised rules. The outcome of any one spin will not affect the outcome of any other spin. This game behaves fairly and has been independently tested to ensure it functions in accordance with the UK Gambling Commision regulations.

Maximum Liability

Aztec Secrets has a maximum prize of 10000.00 for any given bet cycle. The maximum prize Aztec Sectrets will pay out in any given bet cycle is limited. Any prize of the maximum amount that would be won will instead be reduced down to this maximum value. The maximum prize that can be won on any one line in Aztec Secrets is cash calue of 4000.00+bonus win (800 coins for 5 Bonus symbols on a win line with 5 coin multiplier and a coin value of 0.50 and the x2 free bonus from win lines in free spins and a further random bonus from the bonus feature).

Guide to Betting:

This game is based on the stake of coins which, while being a bit more complicated, gives you the option to customize how much you are betting far more easily.

You have two balances visible in game:

At the bottom near the middle you have the balance of your account in real world money.

On the right above the PAYTABLE button you also have the number of coins available which is your balance converted in Coins.

These are there to help you see how much changing the coin value affects the amount of money you have to bet with to ensuring you are not mislead into betting more than you want.

The "Bet" in the bottom middle of the screen is the amount of real world money you will spend when you press "Spin". The "Bet" value on the fat left above the lines selector indicates how many coins you are spending when you press "Spin". You can alter the amount you bet in three ways, the number of win lines (LINES), the number of coins bet on each win line (COINS) and the value of the coins being used (COIN VALUE). The calculate your bet value you multiply these three values together.

LINES X COINS = Bet amount in Coins

LINES X COINS X COIN VALUE = Bet amount in Cash

To determine the amount you have won from the coin calue displayed on screen you use the following formula:

Coin Won X Coin Value = Cash Value won

The coins per line will have already been included in the number of coins won.

Selecting Win Lines

You can increase or decrease the number of active win lines by selecting one of the numbers from the 1 – 25 besides the reels. Selecting a number will make active all win lines from 1 up to and including the sleected number, for example selecting the number 5t will make win lines 2,2,3,4,and 5 active, selecting the number 25 will make all win lines active.

In addition to this you can increase to decrease the number of active win lines by using the lines selector at the bottom left of the screen.

Min Bet

By pressing the min bet button, you will set the bet calue to the minimum amount and Spin. This sets the game to 1 win line, 1 coin multiplier and a coin value of 0.01 this means that you care betting 0.01 each time you spin. It will also automatically spin once the values have been changed, if you wish to set everything to minimum without spinning use Reset Bets.

Note: This functionality is not available in all regions.

Max Bet

By pressing the max bet button you set the bet value to the maximum amount and spin. This sets the game to 25 win lines, 5 coin multiplier but does not change the coin value. It will also automatically spin once the values have been changed.

Reset Bets

This sets the game to 25 win lines, 1 coin multiplier and a coin calue of 0.10 this means that you are betting 2.50 each time you wpin. Pressing this button will not automatically place the bet.

Show/Hide Winlines

This toggles an overlay to help you see all the active win lines, if you want to see a specific win line you can move the cursor over the corresponding number to the left or right hand side to allow you to read more information.
